

EVERYBODY IS ENTITLED TO A BREAK.

Art performance by Franz Wassermann April 29, 2000

Concept. The bodies of man and woman were directly linked with the image through the sticking-on with tapes which I used as carriers of information. The agents were free to choose where to be put. They were also free to choose how long to stick to the poster, how long they were able to endure it.